DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO COMPEL
DISCOVERY RESPONSES

NOTED FOR HEARING:
APRIL 19, 2019

17 I. INTRODUCTION

18 Defendants Island Life Restaurant Group, LLC, Alex Prindle, and Brian O'Conner
19 ("Island Life") request that this Court compel plaintiff BBC Group NV, LLC ("BBC") to 20 produce responses to Island Life's discovery requests.

21 Specifically, BBC should be required to provide complete answers and responses to 22 Interrogatories 3 and 6, and Requests for Production 2, 5, 9, and 11.

23 In addition, BBC should be required to pay for the costs for pursuing this motion, which 24 should not have been necessary.

II. FACTS

A. Plaintiff has delayed for months in providing discovery responses.

In order to foster judicial economy and not waste this Court's time through unnecessary repetition, Island Life hereby incorporates as set forth herein the facts and evidence set forth in the Declaration of Marc Rosenberg in Support of Defendants' Motion to Compel, which declaration is being filed contemporaneously with this motion.

7 In brief, Island Life propounded Interrogatories and Requests for Production on BBC on 8 October 19, 2018. Rosenberg Decl., Ex. 1-Ex. 2. The primary discovery requests at issue here
9 consist of the following 10 Requests for Production, and two Interrogatories that give context
10 to the following Requests for Production:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1. Please provide all documents regarding the setup of the “Bok Bok” restaurants including any business plans, meeting minutes, business model, and documents detailing the structure and organization of the restaurants.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2. Please produce documents related to any expansion plans that you may have, and as specified in Interrogatory 2.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3. Please identify any loan that BBC has secured to build and operate present and future "Bok Bok" restaurants.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4. Please produce those portions of any diary, journal, calendar, or similar record kept by BBC or its officers/corporate representatives during the last five (5) years that refer to or relate to the creation of, selection of, and use of the names "bok a bok," "BOKBOK," or "BOCBOC Chicken Delight."

“INTERROGATORY NO. 3. Set forth with particularity every element of damages that you allege was incurred by you specifically as a result only of the acts and omissions that you allege were taken by Island Life Restaurant, including special and general damages, if any, setting forth the amount of damage and the analysis used by you to compute the damages.”

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 5. Produce all documents that you believe supports your response to the preceding interrogatory regarding damages.

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 6. Please produce documents that reflect confusion between the marks bok a bok, BOKBOK, and/or BOCBOC

1 Chicken Delight.

2 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 7. Other than documents containing
3 attorney-client privileged or work product information, produce all documents
4 that you possess related to your claimed right to use the name BOK BOK and/or BOCBOC Chicken Delight.

5 INTERROGATORY NO. 6. Please identify any communication that BBC or 6 its officers/corporate representatives had, whether written or oral, in which it or 7 its representatives discussed creation of, selection of, or use of the names bok a bok, BOKBOK, or BOCBOC Chicken Delight with anyone outside of BBC GROUP including the dates of the communications, persons involved with the communication, and the subject matter of the communication.

8 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 9. Please produce documents in your 9 possession that support your answer to the preceding Interrogatory.

10 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 10. Produce all evidence, other than 11 the assignment contract, that reflects that BOKBOK in Nevada received any goodwill from the restaurant BOCBOC Chicken Delight in New York.

12 REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 11. Please produce all documents 13 exchanged between BBC and/or its attorneys and Guang-Yang Li and/or his attorneys.

14 Ex. 2 [All Discovery Requests]; Ex. 4 [Highlighted Objections and Non-Answers].

15 For months, Island Life sought repeatedly to obtain discovery responses from BBC,
16 including obtaining a stipulated protective order with BBC, but months passed and not a single 17 document was produced by BBC, and Island Life was unable to obtain a stipulated protective 18 order. Rosenberg Decl. at ¶¶ 4-28, Exs. 1-11. This Court entered the Stipulated Protective 19 Order on March 27, 2019, (Dkt 34), which the parties were finally able to complete and submit to this Court.

20 Between October 19, 2018 and March 25, 2019, BBC did not produce a single page of 21 documents in response to Island Life's discovery requests.

22 A discovery conference was held on March 25, 2019, at which time BBC promised to 23 produce documents by April 3, 2019. Rosenberg Decl. at ¶ 29. BBC has not produced 24 documents in response to Island Life's discovery requests. Island Life now moves to compel.

1 B. Plaintiff finally provided some discovery but they have failed to respond to 2 some discovery requests and others are still woefully inadequate; and Defendant is prejudiced thereby.

3 On April 3, 2019, Plaintiff did not provide any supplementation to Interrogatories No. 3
4 and No. 6. Rosenberg Decl. at ¶ 32. While Plaintiff did finally produce some documents
5 responsive to Island Life's Requests for Production, they have continued to fail to respond to 6 some, and some other responses are woefully inadequate. Id. While Island Life does not waive
7 all grounds for objection at this time, the documents produced by Plaintiff on April 3, 2019
8 were sufficient so that no motion will be brought as to Requests for Production 1, 4, 6, 7, and 9 10, which had initially been the subject of the discovery conference. Id. at ¶ 33. However, the 10 responses to Interrogatories No. 3 and 6, and Requests for Production No. 2, 5, 9, and 11 are 11 still insufficient. Id. In general, with these discovery requests:

12 a. Plaintiff has failed to provide documents supporting its claimed plans to expand
13 into Seattle (RFP 2);

14 b. Plaintiff has failed to provide any specific identification as to any claimed 15 damages, and failed to provide any documents that would support any pf Plaintiff's claims for 16 damages (ROG 3, RFP 5); and

17 c. Other than one clearly insufficient email that it has improperly marked
18 "confidential," Plaintiff has failed to provide any identification as to communications that it had 19 with either the owner of the New York restaurant BOCBOC Chicken Delight, Guang-Yang Li, 20 and/or his attorneys, or documents related to these communications, and related to the 21 assignment of the trademark to BBC (ROG 6, RFP 9, and 11).

22 Island Life is prejudiced by not having access to this information and these documents,
23 as it has no information to defend itself as BBC's claims it intended to expand into Seattle with
24 several restaurants in the next year, how BBC claims to be damaged by any action that Island
25 Life has taken, or information that could show that the assignment of the trademark from the

1 New York restaurant to Plaintiff's Nevada company is a sham. Rosenberg Decl. at ¶ 34.
 2 As such, after months of attempts to obtain this information, we are filing this motion and
 3 asking for the court's assistance in obtaining this information and these documents. Id.

4 III. ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITIES

5 A. Certification pursuant to FRCP 37(a)(1) and 37(d)(1)(B).

6 Counsel for Island Life has held a discovery conference with BBC, and has repeatedly 7 sought in good faith to obtain the requested discovery responses, but has been unable to do so.
 8 See in general Rosenberg Declaration, and attached exhibits.

9 B. Standard on motion to compel

10 The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure favor broad pre-trial discovery. Shoen v. Shoen, 5 F.3d 1289, 1292 (9th Cir.1993). Courts have broad discretion to control
 11 discovery. See Avila v. Willits Envtl. Remediation Trust, 633 F.3d 828, 833
 12 (9th Cir. 2011). If no claim of privilege applies, parties may obtain discovery of 13 any information that is "relevant to any party's claim or defense and proportional 14 to the needs of the case [.]" Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). "Relevant information for 15 purposes of discovery is information 'reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.'" Survivor Media, Inc. v. Survivor Productions, 406 F.3d 625, 635 (9th Cir.2005) (quoting *Brown Bag Software v.
 Symantec Corp.*, 960 F.2d 1465, 1470 (9th Cir.1992)).

16 Tedrow v. Boeing Employees Credit Union, 315 F.R.D. 358, 359 (W.D. Wash. 2016).

17 Mutual knowledge of all the relevant facts gathered by both parties is essential to proper 18 litigation. Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495, 507, 67 S. Ct. 285, 392, 91 L. Ed. 451 (1947).
 19 Pursuant to Rule 37(a), a party propounding discovery may seek an order compelling disclosure
 20 when an opposing party has failed to respond or has provided evasive or incomplete responses.
 21 Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(a)(3)(B). "[A]n evasive or incomplete disclosure, answer, or response must be 22 treated as a failure to disclose, answer, or respond." Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(a)(4). "The party who 23 resists discovery has the burden to show that discovery should not be allowed, and has the 24 burden of clarifying, explaining, and supporting objections." *Everest Indem. Ins. Co. v. QBE
 Ins. Corp.*, 980 F. Supp. 2d 1273, 1277 (W.D. Wash. 2013).

1 C. BBC's broad general objections should be stricken.

2 BBC's discovery responses commence with a long list of "General Objections," which
 3 are improper under FRCP 33 and 34. See Rosenberg Decl., Ex. 4 at pp. 2-5.

4 "General Objections" flout those duties [of FRCP 33 and 34]. They are a laundry
 5 list of objections devoid of any explanation of how each objection applies to the 6 request to which it is allegedly responsive. They give a person reading them no
 7 basis to determine where its objections end and its responses begin. They give a 8 person reading them no basis to begin a discussion about whether Expedia has 9 made a reasonable effort to identify responsive information or documents. E

10 Weidenhamer v. Expedia, Inc., No. C14-1239RAJ, 2015 WL 1292978, at *7 (W.D. Wash. Mar.
 11 23, 2015).

12 Using "General Objections" ... is a per se violation of the Federal Rules of Civil 13 Procedure. It is per se sanctionable. It is bad faith, it is contrary to the principles 14 of civility that the court expects from parties who appear before it, and it is 15 contrary to the spirit of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which are intended 16 to promote discovery, not obstruction.

17 Id. at *8.

18 This Court should strike BBC's General Objections.

19 D. BBC has failed to adequately answer Interrogatory No 3 and 6.

20 An interrogatory may relate to any matter that may be inquired into under Rule
 21 26(b). An interrogatory is not objectionable merely because it asks for an 22 opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the 23 court may order that the interrogatory need not be answered until designated 24 discovery is complete, or until a pretrial conference or some other time.

25 FRCP 33(a)(2).

26 "The responding party must serve its answers and any objections within 30 days after 27 being served with the interrogatories. A shorter or longer time may be stipulated to under Rule
 28 29 or be ordered by the court." FRCP 33(b)(2). "Each interrogatory must, to the extent it is not 29 objected to, be answered separately and fully in writing under oath." FRCP 33(b)(3). "The grounds for objecting to an interrogatory must be stated with specificity. Any ground not stated

1 in a timely objection is waived unless the court, for good cause, excuses the failure.”
 2 FRCP 33(b)(4).

3 Island Life provided discovery requests to BBC on October 19, 2018. Rosenberg Decl.,
 4 Exs. 1-2. Responses to Island Life’s Interrogatories were due on November 19, 2018.
 5 Interrogatory No. 3 asks for BBC to specify all damages it is claiming, setting forth the amount
 6 of damage and the analysis used by you to compute the damages. Plaintiff has only stated it is 7 claiming “actual damages” and “statutory damages,” and that damages will be addressed by an 8 expert. BBC does not provide a single statement as to what the “actual damages” are, what the 9 “statutory damages” are, or how such damages are computed.¹

10 BBC did not provide any legitimate response to Interrogatories No. 3 and 6 between 11 October 19, 2018 and the present, despite entry of a stipulated protective order.

12 This Court should strike any defenses BBC was asserting and order it to fully answer
 13 Interrogatories No. 3 and 6.

14 E. BBC has failed to provide any documents in response to Requests for 15 Production 2, 5, 9, and 11.

16 A party may serve on another party a request to produce and permit the requesting party 17 to inspect, copy, test, or sample the items in the responding party’s possession, custody, or 18 control. FRCP 34(a)(1). The party to whom the request is directed must respond in writing
 19 within 30 days after being served. FRCP 34(b)(2)(A). The production of documents must be 20 completed no later than the time for inspection specified in the request or another reasonable 21 time specified in the response. FRCP 34(b)(2)(B).

22 Island Life provided discovery requests to BBC on October 19, 2018. Rosenberg Decl.,
 23 Exs. 1-2. Responses to Island Life’s Requests for Production were due on November 19, 2018.
 24

25 ¹ Request for Production No. 5 asks for documents to support the damage claims.

1 BBC did not produce a single document between October 19, 2018 and April 3, 2019, despite
 2 entry of a stipulated protective order.

3 Listed by the Request for Production numbers below, Island Life's Requests for 4 Production are few and targeted, seeking documents as documents related to:

5 (2) BBC's plans for expansion;

6 (5) BBC's damage claims;

7 (9) BBC's communications with anyone outside of BBC regarding the creation of,
 8 selection of, or use of the names bok a bok, BOKBOK, or BOCBOC Chicken Delight;

9 (11) Documents exchanged between BBC and/or its attorneys and Guang-Yang Li
 10 and/or his attorneys, Guang-Yang Li being the initial owner of the mark BOCBOC Chicken
 11 Delight in New York.

12 This Court should strike any defenses BBC was asserting and order it to fully produce
 13 all documents in its possession that are responsive to Requests for Production 2, 5, 9, and 11.

14 F. Island Life is prejudiced by an inability to obtain the requested 15 information.

16 Without waiving the right to point out additional inadequate discovery responses later
 17 on, Plaintiff has failed to provide at least the following discovery:

18 1. Documents supporting its claimed plans to expand into Seattle (RFP 2);

19 2. Any specific identification as to any claimed damages, and failed to provide any 20 documents that would support any of Plaintiff's claims for damages (ROG 3, RFP 5); and 21 3. Identification as to communications that it had with either the owner of the New 22 York restaurant BOCBOC Chicken Delight, Guang-Yang Li, and/or his attorneys, or 23 documents related to these communications, and related to the assignment of the trademark to 24 BBC, other than one email improperly marked as "confidential." (ROG 6, RFP 9, and 11).

1 Island Life is prejudiced by not having access to this information and these documents,
 2 as it has no information to defend itself as BBC's claims it intended to expand into Seattle with
 3 several restaurants in the next year, how BBC claims to be damaged by any action that Island
 4 Life has taken, or information that could show that the assignment of the trademark from the
 5 New York restaurant to Plaintiff's Nevada company is a sham. Rosenberg Decl. at ¶ 34.
 6 As such, after months of attempts to obtain this information, we are filing this motion and
 7 asking for the court's assistance in obtaining this information and these documents. Id.

8 G. Sanctions.

9 “The court where the action is pending may, on motion, order sanctions if … a party,
 10 after being properly served with interrogatories under Rule 33 or a request for inspection under 11 Rule 34, fails to serve its answers, objections, or written response.” FRCP 37(d)(1)(A).
 12 “A failure described in Rule 37(d)(1)(A) is not excused on the ground that the discovery sought
 13 was objectionable, unless the party failing to act has a pending motion for a protective order
 14 under Rule 26(c).” FRCP 37(d)(2). No motion for protective order has been made.

15 Pursuant to FRCP 37(d)(3), sanctions may include any of the orders listed in Rule 16 37(b)(2)(A)(i)-(vi). These are:

- 17 (i) directing that the matters embraced in the order or other designated facts be taken as established for purposes of the action, as the prevailing party claims;
- 18 (ii) prohibiting the disobedient party from supporting or opposing designated claims or defenses, or from introducing designated matters in evidence;
- 19 (iii) striking pleadings in whole or in part;
- 20 (iv) staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed;
- 21 (v) dismissing the action or proceeding in whole or in part;
- 22 (vi) rendering a default judgment against the disobedient party; or

(vii) treating as contempt of court the failure to obey any order except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination.

Instead of or in addition to these sanctions, the court must require the party failing to act, the attorney advising that party, or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the failure was substantially justified or other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

FRCP 37(d)(3).

Here, while there were three separate law firms representing BBC during this time period, there was arguably a period between March 1-12 that was excusable as to one law firm. During this time, counsel for BBC, Mr. Bayramoglu, advised that his grandmother had passed away, and then recommenced the discovery process by his own actions. See Rosenberg Decl. at ¶¶ 21-26, Ex. 9-10. Id.

Even assuming there was justification for not producing documents within this 12-day period, there was no justification for failing to produce a single page of documents between October 19, 2018 and April 3, 2019, which is close to six (6) months without production. Thus, for argument sake, even if this 12 days was justifiable, and one month during the period in which the discovery was propounded until it was due, there was about four (4) full months of time during which there was no justification for withholding discovery responses.

As such, Island Life requests the following sanctions.

1. BBC should be ordered to pay compensation for the fees and costs to bring this motion, and all of the additional time in seeking discovery, which should have been unnecessary; and

2. BBC should be prohibited from introducing as evidence any improperly withheld documents.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth herein, BBC should be required to provide complete responses to Island Life's discovery requests within 10 days of the entry of an order on this motion to compel (ROGs 3 and 6, and RFPs 2, 5, 9, and 11), pay for the costs for pursuing this motion, which should not have been necessary, and be precluded from introducing as evidence any documents that it failed to timely produce.
